Mr Koo

Then Mr Koo saw Pig Lucy, he asked, ‘How can I grow as big as you?’ Pig Lucy said, ‘I always eat meat and sleep.’ Mr Koo did the same but he did not get taller than the old tree stump.

Mr Koo wanted to give up but his mum said, ‘You are short but being short is good. Let me tell you a story.’

‘One day, a man is short. He is so sad, and he goes to walk in the park. Suddenly, a lion wants to eat him, so the man runs and runs, but he is so small. The man thinks of an idea. He runs to a flower and goes behind it. The lion cannot see him so the lion runs away. The man is safe.’

Finally Mr Koo understood now. Being short is very good. He thanked his mum for the story, then he went out to play.
