In my perfect world, there are no armies, because there is no war. No one argues. No one smoke or take drugs. There is no gun and no war. People are living in a peaceful place. No one will die painfully. No one will die young. No one will die because of war. Everyone love each other.

In my perfect world, there are no detentions. There are no break-ups. There is no prison. Because there are no rules. Everyone just knows how to behave well. No one speaks too loudly, and no one shouts in an angry way.

In my perfect world, it is always early spring. There is no winter. There are no cars. Ice cream is free, candies are everywhere, and the sky is blue all the time, with only a few clouds that have interesting shapes.
