

Advice for good manner

It is important to behave well both on the bus and in the park.

We should behave nicely on the bus. We should not talk loudly on the bus. We should not fight with our brothers or sisters on the bus. We should talk quietly on the bus. We should give our seats to people that need help.

When we are in the park, we should not behave badly either. We should not damage the facilities in the park. We should not talk loudly in the park.

We should walk in the park. We should help people who are in need. We should be a well-behave person all the times.

