A bad boy

Peter likes to eat snacks. One day his classmates Lily and Tim wanted Peter to share some food with them, but Peter was selfish, he didn't want to give them.

Then Peter went to another side of the playground, he saw a dog, he threw the snacks to the dog. He wanted to make fun of it.

The dog was scared, it started to run. It ran away quickly.

Suddenly, Peter fell on the ground and he hurt. Tim and Lily saw him so they went to check what's happening.

They helped Peter and gave the plaster to him.

At last they become good friends. Peter is polite and well-behave now.

They stay together all the time.
