A scary incident

Last week, Vivian told me she will go to Japan for three days, so she gave her hamster to me and told me to take care of it. She said she will come back in three days.

Then, I put the hamster in a cage. When I was feeding the hamster, the hamster ran away quickly.

Fortunately, the hamster didn't die.

I felt very scared when I lost the hamster. I learned that I need to feed the hamster carefully. I hope I can see Vivian's hamster and feed it again.
